My dear parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter which is now known as DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY. Today is also the Octave of Easter which, simply put, means that every day this past week has been basically ONE DAY – Easter Sunday!

It was Saint Pope John Paul II who introduced Divine Mercy Sunday to the Universal Church as a perpetual observance on the Second Sunday of Easter. This observance is one which Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish Nun, said the Lord Jesus requested to celebrate the “ocean of mercy” which is available to all who approach Him. Divine Mercy Sunday is the “novena day” which began on Good Friday. Saint Faustina recorded her mystical writings within a diary which has now been published and serves as the inspiration for devotion to Divine Mercy, Jesus Himself. Saint Faustina died at the age of 33 in 1938 and is buried in the convent of the Sisters of Our Lady of Grace in Krakow, Poland.

An image of Saint Faustina will be blessed at the Divine Mercy celebration which will take place in Saint Cecilia Church this afternoon beginning at 2 o’clock. The image will be placed in the votive room near the image of Divine Mercy.

The Divine Mercy celebration this afternoon will include wonderful music, inspirational reading from the Diary of Saint Faustina within the Exposition and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Priests will be available for the sacrament of penance. A Plenary indulgence is available on this Sunday for all those who participate in this solemn celebration, a privileged occasion of grace and forgiveness for all people.

Today our brothers and sisters of the Orthodox Churches celebrate Easter Sunday. Tomorrow I leave with a group of fellow parishioners on a tour to Ireland. While I am in the land of Saint Patrick I assure you that I will remember all of you in my prayers. I know that our two priests will take good care of you while I am away and I look forward to returning to you on April 21st.

Father Pawel, Father Cerilo, Deacon Matt and Seminarian Angel join with me in expressing sincere thanks to all those who remembered us at Easter with food and much more. Your thoughtfulness and generosity are signs of the goodness of our Sacred Heart of Jesus and Saint Cecilia Parishes! We pray that the Risen Lord will richly bless you for remembering us!

Christ is Risen!

Father Zig

New Movie You Must See: The nationwide theatrical release of Paul, Apostle of Christ, is March 23, 2018. Produced by Catholic ministry ODB Filmas and starring acclaimed actors Jim Caviezel and James Faulkner, this movie dynamically and truthfully illustrates the beginnings of Christian persecution under the Roman Empire. St. Paul’s story is one of conversion, forgiveness and perseverance in the face of extreme intolerance, not unlike that faced by many Christians today. This dramatic retelling of his life can move the hearts of both believers and nonbelievers. The film, dedicated to the persecuted Christians of today, is an opportunity to spread awareness of their plight among your friends, family and community. Invite them to watch this inspiring film, and help spread awareness for the future of Christianity!

ATTENTION MEN – A new men’s group called FATHERS OF ST. JOSEPH will be meeting every other Saturday morning at 5:30 a.m. in the St. Cecilia Office Building. The sole aim and purpose of the group is to labor for the restoration, revitalization and redemption of human fatherhood, in order that it may become what it has been created to be: an efficacious icon that directs the human family to its Father. The Fathers of St. Joseph gatherings are not so much meetings as they are mini retreats, whose aim is to communicate the spirituality of fatherhood in a manner that encourages and inspires fathers to embrace, engage and – by the power of the Holy Spirit – sanctify their vocation. Next meeting is April 14th.

GOOD COUNSEL HOMES: Good Counsel is a private Catholic agency whose primary mission is to help homeless pregnant women by providing a loving family environment in a safe and secure shelter. Begun in 1985 by Fr. Benedict Groeschel and Chris Bell, both leaders in the pro-life movement, Good Counsel has grown to five homes in the New York greater metropolitan area. Working closely with the Sisters of Life through our Lumina outreach we have developed an outstanding program of support and healing for those suffering from abortion related problems. Women receive educational and vocational assistance and professional counseling. Mothers staying with us are able to learn a trade and map out goals to achieve while at Good Counsel and when they move on to new, independent lives.
