My Dear Parishioners,

In our celebration of the Lord's Day on this Fourth Sunday of Easter we also observe the "World Day of Prayer for Vocations." This annual commemoration falls on the Fourth Sunday of Easter due to the Gospel for this Sunday which always draws from John, chapter 10. In this Gospel we read about the Good Shepherd and Jesus is that shepherd. This Sunday we hear the Lord say, "...I will lay down my life for the sheep." Later in the same passage we read, "...I have the power to lay it down, and the power to take it up again." These Easter days celebrate the great joy of His Resurrection and His promise to lead His sheep to the evergreen pastures of heaven. The image of Christ the Good Shepherd has been a favorite for believers from the very beginning. The Christian catacombs of Rome bear witness to this in providing us with some of the earliest religious icons of Christ the Good Shepherd. The Savior leading and protecting His sheep is the model for pastoral care. This is the pastoral love which must characterize the ministry of every bishop, priest, deacon, religious sister and religious brother. For this kind of pastoral love to be absent is a travesty. Unfortunately we know all too well of those scandalous cases of "hirelings" and "wolves" which neither care nor protect the Lord's flock. To these evil ones a terrible judgment awaits. Today we are being invited to pray to Christ the Good Shepherd and ask that He send many loving shepherds to care for God's holy people. In addition to our prayers, which are crucial, we can also encourage our young people to consider ministry through our positive words and the support we show those who are ordained and living in consecrated life. Our sisters, brothers and priests shepherd us through their care and service to old and young alike.

On Friday we begin the month of May which will indeed be a special month for all of us in the Diocese of Paterson. Later in the month Bishop Serratelli will ordain a group of seminarians to the order of deacon and after that, a group of deacons will be ordained to the priesthood. Among them will be the two deacons who call Saint Cecilia and Sacred Heart of Jesus, HOME. Deacon Jakub Grzybowski and Deacon Lukasz Iwanczuk will be ordained priests on Saturday, May 23rd. Both priests will celebrate their first Mass the next day, Sunday, May 24th at 12:15 p.m. in Saint Cecilia Church. Following the liturgy a luncheon will be served in Hayes Hall to which all are invited. I hope that you will attend as a sign of your support for our new priests, our new "shepherds."

Another wonderful event which marks the month of May will be "First Holy Communion" for the prepared children of our parish. They will receive for the first time the Lord Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist. It is the Eucharist which is brought about by the priest. We remember, "no priest-no Eucharist", and for that reason we must always pray that the Lord will send us good shepherds in the image of His Son, Christ our Savior!

God bless you - Christ is Risen!

Fr. Zig

This Sunday Episode 4 This week's episode portrays St. Stephen brimming with excitement to preach in the Temple immediately. But St. Peter tells him to be patient, and Stephen obeys. What does their conversation show us about Peter's authority among Christians? ALSO, As news of St. Peter's miraculous healing spreads, the sick and the lame fill his path. What is the difference between Jesus' miraculous healings and Peter's?
